

Dear Unitholders

It is my pleasure to present Cervus LP's results for the third guarter ended September 30, 2004.

Third Quarter, Fiscal 2004 Results

The Partnership's sales for the quarter were $47.7 million. The profit for the quarter was $1.9 million. or 0.50 per unit basic and on a fully diluted basis. Year to date, revenue was $109.9 million and net earnings were $3.2 million or 0.85 per unit basic and on a fully diluted basis.

The Partnership distributed 0.15 of a common share of Cervus Corporation for each unit held by unitholders of record as of June 30, 2004 on July 15, 2004.

Current Economic Environment

Harvest is substantially complete, with a few small areas in Saskatchewan finishing harvest while conditions still remain dry. Yields were much better then generally expected, but quality is significantly below average which has resulted in a surplus of feed grains.

Industry sales of combines had a substantial increase over last year and some John Deere products have all of 2005 production already sold through early order programs. Strong demand by U.S. farmers because of tax incentives and higher income levels have increased North American sales levels and reduced new inventories.

With the U.S. election behind us now, we are optimistic that the ban on live cattle from Canada may be lifted in the next several months. When this is resolved, we look forward to our cattle producer customers achieving a normalized income level once again.

Sincerely submitted on behalf of the employees of Cervus LP and management and directors of the general partner Cervus Corporation,

Peter Lacev

President and Chief Executive Officer

Cervus Corporation, the General Partner

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the period from January 1 to September 30, 2004

1. Formation and basis of presentation:

Cervus LP (the "LP") was incorporated under the laws of Alberta as a limited partnership on March 14, 2003. The general partner is Cervus Corporation. The LP, is a retailer of agricultural equipment primarily supplied by Deere & Company and products and services pursuant to a contract agreement to act as an authorized dealer for John Deere Limited.

On March 14, 2003, Cervus Corporation entered into an arrangement agreement with the LP. Pursuant to the agreement, the net assets of its subsidiaries with operations in Calgary, Ponoka, Stettler and Trochu were transferred to the LP in exchange for promissory notes, limited partnership units and fixed value limited partnership units. Cervus Corporation distributed the limited partnership units to its shareholders. On closing of the arrangement, each common shareholder of Cervus Corporation received one limited partnership unit of Cervus LP for each common share held.

On January 1, 2004, the LP acquired a 59% interest in Greenline Equipment Ltd. from Cervus Corporation in exchange for a promissory note. For accounting purposes, the acquisition is a transfer between entities under common control and has been recorded at carrying values.

2. General:

The interim financial statements of Cervus LP have been prepared by management in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Canada. The interim financial statements have been prepared following the same accounting policies and methods of computation as the financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. The disclosures provided below are incremental to those included in the annual financial statements. The interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and the notes thereto for the year ended December 31, 2003.

3. Seasonality:

Canadian retailing of agricultural equipment is influenced by seasonality. Sales activity is normally highest between April and September during growing seasons in Canada. Sales activity is low during winter months during non-growing seasons. As a result, earnings may not accrue homogenously from quarter to quarter.

4. Change in accounting policy:

Effective January 1, 2004, the partnership adopted the amended Canadian accounting standard for stock-based compensation. The amended standard requires the Company to measure all stock-based payments using the fair value method of accounting and recognize the compensation expense in the financial statements.

The effect of this change in accounting policy has been recorded retroactively with restatement of prior periods. The effect of the adoption is presented in note 7(b).

7. Partners' equity:

(a) Per unit amounts:

The earnings per unit have been calculated based on the weighted average number of units outstanding for the period ended September 30, 2004 of 3,777,623. In computing diluted per unit amounts 76,113 units were added to the weighted average number of units for the dilutive effect of unit options.

(b) Unit options:

The LP has a stock option plan available to officers, directors and employees with grants under the plan approved from time to time by the board of directors of the general partner. The exercise price of each option equals the market price of the partnership units at the date of grant. The plan provides for vesting, at the discretion of the board, and the options expire after three years from the date of grant.

On July 2, 2003, the LP issued unit options to officers of the general partner and employees of the LP to issue unit options to acquire 215,000 units at an exercise price of $1.00 per unit. These options were all exercised on June 25, 2004.

The following weighted average assumptions were used to determine the fair value of options on date of grant:

Risk free interest rate	5%
Expected life	3 years
Maximum life	3 years
Expected dividend	$nil per unit
Expected unit price volatility	36%

Had the LP determined unit-based compensation costs based on the fair value at the date of grant for its unit options, net earnings and earnings per unit ("EPU") for the period from March 14, 2003 to December 31, 2003 would have decreased by the amounts indicated below. These earnings reflect compensation costs amortized over the option's vesting period.

8. Economic dependence:

The LP's primary source of income is from the sale of farm equipment and products and services pursuant to agreements to act as an authorized dealer for John Deere Limited. The agreement with John Deere Limited provides a framework under which John Deere Limited can terminate a John Deere dealership if such dealership fails to maintain certain performance and equity covenants. Each contract also provides a one-year remedy period whereby the LP has one year to restore any deficiencies. There can be no guarantee that circumstances will not arise which give John Deere Limited the right to terminate John Deere dealership agreements.

Cervus Corporation, as general partner, is considered a co-borrower and guarantor of the indebtedness of the LP.

9. Related party transactions:

Under the arrangement agreement and subsequent operational agreement between the LP and Cervus Corporation, Cervus Corporation is entitled to reimbursement for costs incurred as general partner. The agreement provides for a 1% annual charge on assets utilized, allocation of insurance costs, allocation of data services, guarantee fees based on 3% of the guarantee amounts to John Deere payable to either Cervus Corporation or the individual providing the guarantees, interest on any overdraft balances, interest on any outstanding indebtedness, building lease charges based on 1% per month of the fair market value of the property, and other direct expenses reimbursable with no handling fees or markup.

During the period ended September 30, 2004, the LP had the following transactions with Cervus Corporation:

	2004	2003
Equipment and land and building rentals Interest on notes payable and income on	$ 603,243	$ 212,527

11. Acquisition of Greenline Equipment Ltd (continued):

The following represents the results of operations for the three and nine month periods ending July 31, 2003 while the dealerships were owned by Cervus Corporation. The results are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations, cash flows, or financial position had the dealership assets been operated as an independent entity as at or for the dates and periods presented. The results of operations do not include an allocation of corporate and other overhead costs to the dealerships, costs resulting from the arrangement with the general partner and changes to the income tax provisions resulting from the change in the ownership structure from a corporation to a partnership.

12. Investment in Cervus Corporation:

On May 5, 2004, the LP acquired 620,000 common shares of Cervus Corporation at a price of $2.00 per common share in a private placement. As the common shares were issued pursuant to an exemption from the prospectus requirements of the Securities Act (Alberta), they are subject to a hold period expiring in September 2004. As a result of the transaction, the LP owns approximately 14.35% of the issued and outstanding shares of Cervus Corporation.

For accounting purposes, the transaction is between related parties entities under common control and has been recorded at carrying values. The carrying value of the shares of Cervus Corporation issued under the arrangement is $861,800 ($1.39 per share). The difference between the purchase price and carrying value $378,200 has been recorded as an equity contribution to Cervus Corporation by the LP.

On July 15, 2004, the LP distributed 587,473 shares of Cervus Corporation to unit holders of record on June 30, 2004. This represents a distribution of $0.21 on an accounting basis or $0.30 on a tax basis per limited partnership unit by receiving of 0.15 Cervus Corporation common shares for each unit. As the hold period on the common shares had not expired by July 15, a director and the principal shareholder of Cervus Corporation, agreed to exchange 620,000 free-trading Cervus Corporation shares for the 620,000 restricted-shares.

13. Subsequent event:

On October 29, 2004, the LP announced it intends to complete a private placement of 100,000 limited partnership units at a price of $2.00 per unit. The units issued will be subject to a four month hold period from the date of issuance. The private placement was completed on November 24, 2004.
